

Welcome to Language ETC

NEWS:

Executive Director, Carolyn Morrissey, and student Jose Reyes testified before the DC Council to express opposition to the proposed 36% reduction in funding for adult education programs in the Mayor's FY2011 budget.

Read Dr. Morrissey's testimony and

Read Mr. Reyes' testimony.

NEWSLETTER:

Read most recent LETC Newsletter (Spring 2010)

Language ETC

(Language, Education and Technology Center) offers adult immigrants in the Washington, DC area high-quality English language instruction (basic-advanced), as well as related educational services – computer classes, one-on one tutoring, and life-skills seminars. Our vision is for our students to build a better future for themselves and for their children and to become contributing and self-reliant members of our community. Our students come from more than 60 nations from around the world. We offer merit and needs-based scholarships. We charge minimum tuition for our classes, and turn no one away for inability to pay. We work with over 1,600 adult students annually. We accomplish our goals will a small staff, 200-300 volunteer teachers and tutors each term, and the support of many, including individual donors from our neighborhood and community. Language ETC is making a real difference in the lives of immigrants in the community. Please let us know how you would like to get involved.

Click here to access LETC Writing Blog

Language ETC is proud to have been selected as a featured charity in the 2009 and 2005 Catalogue for Philanthropy. Language ETC was selected from a competitive field of nearly 250 candidates each year. Proposals were reviewed by 50 professional grantmakers and leaders at 30 local foundations and nonprofit organizations. "Charities were selected for excellence, innovation, and cost-effectiveness--and for what they can teach us about the extraordinary ways that philanthropy works," Harman said. "These are certainly among the best small charities in the Washington, DC region." For more information about the catalogue and to order a free copy click here.

Read student stories.

Read volunteer stories.

2200 California Street, NW | Washington, DC 20008 | 202-387-2222